Unemployment Rates in Oklahoma Continue At Lower Levels in 1998

Oklahoma began 1996 with a 5.0 percent unemployment rate. By the time January 1998 rolled around, the unemployment rate took a 1.0 percent dive to only 4 percent. Both years, 1996 and 1997 experienced an overall annual average of 4.1 percent. The 1998 annual average unemployment rate decreased one-tenth of a percent from the revised 1997 rate (1998 figures have not yet undergone the benchmark process). The first and second quarter of 1998's unemployment rates set a record for the lowest rates for a consecutive six-month period at the beginning of a year.

MEAGER GROWTH DISPLAYED IN MINING

Total Nonfarm Employment in Oklahoma increased 0.3% in December, gaining approximately 4,600 jobs for the month. A total of 41,300 jobs have been created since this time last year. The Goods Producing industries increased 0.1% (200 jobs), while the Service Producing industries rose 0.4% (4,400 jobs) in December.

MINING gained 100 jobs in December, due to a slight increase in Oil and Gas Extraction. This industry still remains 500 below the December 1997 level.

CONSTRUCTION posted a slight gain in employment this month, after displaying only a small seasonal decline last month.

MANUFACTURING, as a whole, held steady for the month. The decrease in Durable Goods counteracted the increase in Nondurable Goods. Meager gains appeared in Fabricated Metal Products, Transportation Equipment, Food & Kindred Products, and Rubber & Miscellaneous Plastic Products. Employment declines occurred in Lumber & Wood Products and Newspapers and Periodical Products.

TRANSPORTATION AND PUBLIC UTILITIES, as a whole, posted significant growth in December. While the majority of this growth can be attributed to Communications and Utilities, Air Transportation reported a slight increase.

TRADE experienced another a growth spurt in December with gains in both the Wholesale and the Retail Trade sectors. Retail Trade continued to report strong employment growth and contributed to the majority of the Total Trade increase. Apparel & Accessory Stores accounted for half of the growth in Retail Trade this month. The only sectors that didn't show positive growth were Automotive Dealers, which held steady, and Eating & Drinking Places, which declined in December.

FINANCE, INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE continued to increase for the month and has grown quite significantly for the year. Nondepository Institutions were up for the month, while Depository Institutions and Insurance Carriers remained constant.

SERVICES displayed a gain in employment for the month. Business Services dropped significantly in December. Strong gains appeared in Health Services, Motion Pictures, and Engineering & Management Services. Personal Services and Educational Services saw only meager gains. Hotels & Other Lodging held constant in December.

GOVERNMENT increased for the month. Federal Government posted significant employment gains in December. State and Local Government, both displayed equal declines for the month.
